creation	The management board focuses on long-term value creation for the company and its affiliated enterprise, and takes into account the stakeholder interests that are relevant in this context. The supervisory board monitors the management board in this.
1.1.1 Long-term	The management board should develop a view on	The principle is value creation	long-term value creation by the company and its	applied the market in which the company and its affiliated enterprise operate;

	iii. opportunities and risks for the company;
	iv. the company's operational and financial goals and their impact on its future position in relevant markets;
	v. the interests of the stakeholders; and
	vi. any other aspects relevant to the company and its affiliated enterprise, such as the environment, social and employee-related matters, the chain board	term value creation strategy. The supervisory board should regularly discuss the strategy, the implementation of the strategy and the principal risks associated with it. In the report drawn up by the supervisory board, an account is given of its involvement in the establishment of the strategy, and the way in which it monitors its implementation.

1.1.4	In the management report, the management board	The principle is Accountability	should give a more detailed explanation of its view on	applied of the	long-term value creation and the strategy for its management	realisation, as well as describing which contributions board	were made to long-term value creation in the past financial year. The management board should report on both the short-term and long-term developments.
Principle 1.2	The company should have adequate internal risk Risk	management control systems in place. The management	management board is responsible for identifying and managing the risk associated with the company's strategy and activities.
1.2.1 Risk	The management board should identify and analyse	The principle is assessment	the risks associated with the strategy and activities of	applied the company and its affiliated enterprise. It is responsible for establishing the risk appetite, and also the measures that are put in place in order to counter the risks being taken.

1.2.2	Based on the risk assessment, the management board	The principle is Implementation	should design, implement and maintain adequate	applied internal risk management and control systems. To the extent relevant, these systems should be integrated into the work processes within the company and its affiliated enterprises, and should be familiar to those whose work they are relevant to.
1.2.3 Monitoring	The management board should monitor the operation	The principle is of effectiveness	of the internal risk management and control systems	applied and should carry out a systematic assessment of their design and effectiveness at least once a year. This monitoring should cover all material control measures relating to strategic, operational, compliance and reporting risks. Attention should be given to observed weaknesses, instances of misconduct and irregularities, indications from whistleblowers, lessons learned and findings from the internal audit function and the external auditor. Where necessary, improvements should be made to internal risk management and control systems.
Principle 1.3	The duty of the internal audit function is to assess the Internal audit	design and the operation of the internal risk function	management and control systems. The management board is responsible for the internal audit function.
	The supervisory board oversees the internal audit function and maintains regular contact with the person fulfilling this function.
1.3.1	The management board both appoints and dismisses	The principle is along with the recommendation issued by the audit committee.

1.3.2 Assessment of the internal audit function	The management board should assess the way in which the internal audit function fulfils its responsibility annually, taking into account the audit committee's opinion.	The principle is applied
1.3.3 Internal audit plan	The internal audit function should draw up an audit plan, involving the management board, the audit committee and the external auditor in this process. The audit plan should be submitted to the management board, and then to the supervisory board, for approval. In this internal audit plan, attention should be paid to the interaction with the external auditor.	The principle is applied
1.3.4 Performance of work	The internal audit function should have sufficient resources to execute the internal audit plan and have access to information that is important for the performance of its work. The internal audit function should have direct access to the audit committee and the external auditor. Records should be kept of how the audit committee is informed by the internal audit function.	The principle is applied
1.3.5 Reports of findings	The internal audit function should report its audit results to the management board and the essence of its audit results to the audit committee and should inform the external auditor. The research finding of the internal audit function should, at least, include the following:  i. any flaws in the effectiveness of the internal risk management and control systems;  ii. any findings and observations with a material impact on the risk profile of the company and its affiliated enterprise; and	The principle is applied been taken, partly on the basis of a recommendation issued by the audit committee, and will consider whether it is necessary to establish an internal audit department. The supervisory board should include the conclusions, along with any resulting recommendations and alternative measures, in the report of the supervisory board.

Principle 1.4	The management board should render account of the may include strategic, operational, compliance and reporting risks;

	ii. the design and operation of the internal risk management and control systems during the past financial year;

1.4.3 Statement by the management board	iii. any major failings in the internal risk management and control systems which have been observed in the financial year, any significant changes made to these systems and any major improvements planned, along with a confirmation that these issues have been discussed with the audit committee and the supervisory board; and iv. the sensitivity of the results of the company to material changes in external factors.  The management board should state in the management report, with clear substantiation, that: i. the report provides sufficient insights into any failings in the effectiveness of the internal risk management and control systems; ii. the aforementioned systems provide reasonable assurance that the financial reporting does not contain any material inaccuracies; iii. based on the current state of affairs, it is justified that the financial reporting is prepared on a going concern basis; and iv. the report states those material risks and uncertainties that are relevant to the expectation of the company's continuity for the period of twelve months after the preparation of the report.	The principle is applied
Principle 1.5 Role of the supervisory board	The supervisory board should supervise the policies carried out by the management board and the general affairs of the company and its affiliated enterprise. In so doing, the supervisory board should also focus on the effectiveness of the company's internal risk

Principle 2.1	The management board and the supervisory board should address:

	i. the desired expertise and background of the

2.1.3 Executive committee	If the management board works with an executive committee, the management board should take account of the checks and balances that are part of the two-tier system. This means, among other things, that the management board's expertise and responsibilities are safeguarded and the supervisory board is informed adequately. The supervisory board should supervise this whilst paying specific attention to the dynamics and the relationship between the management board and the executive committee.  In the management report, account should be rendered of:  i. the choice to work with an executive committee;  ii. the role, duty and composition of the executive committee; and  iii. how the contacts between the supervisory board and the executive committee have been given shape.	The principle is not applicable	Whilst a new Pepco Group Executive Committee has been set up (see announcement dated 28 September 2023), the Company continues to operate a one-tier board system.
2.1.4 Expertise	Each supervisory board member and each management board member should have the specific expertise required for the fulfilment of his duties.  Each supervisory board member should be capable of assessing the broad outline of the overall management.	The principle is applied committee. The policy should address the concrete targets relating to diversity and the diversity aspects relevant to the company, such as nationality, age, gender, and education and work background.
2.1.5 Diversity Policy	The supervisory board should draw up a diversity policy for the composition of the management board, the supervisory board and, if applicable, the executive	The principle is applied

2.1.6 Accountability about diversity	The corporate governance statement should explain the diversity policy and the way that it is implemented in practice, addressing:  i. the policy objectives;  ii. how the policy has been implemented; and iii. the results of the policy in the past financial year.  If the composition of the management board and the supervisory board diverges from the targets stipulated in the company's diversity policy and/or the statutory target for the male/female ratio, if and to the extent that this is provided under or pursuant to the law, the current state of affairs should be outlined in the corporate governance statement, along with an explanation as to which measures are being taken to attain the intended target, and by when this is likely to be achieved.	The principle is applied
2.1.7 Independence of the supervisory board	The composition of the supervisory board is such that the members are able to operate independently and critically vis-à-vis one another, the management board, and any particular interests involved.  In order to safeguard its independence, the supervisory board is composed in accordance with the following criteria:  i. any one of the criteria referred to in best practice provision 2.1.8, sections i. to v. inclusive should be applicable to at most one supervisory board member;	The principle is not applied	The Company operates a one-tier Board which complies with principle 2.1.7(i).  At the AGM held on 2 February 2023, Andy Bond was appointed non-executive member of the Board.  Consequently, the Company does not meet the criteria under best practice provision 2.1.7(ii).  At the same AGM, Trevor Masters was appointed executive member of the Board and Neil Galloway was confirmed as executive member of the Board from the date of his commencement in the role of CFO on 1 April 2023.

	ii. the total number of supervisory board members to whom the criteria referred to in best practice provision 2.1.8 are applicable should account for less than half of the total number of supervisory board members; and iii. for each shareholder, or group of affiliated shareholders, who directly or indirectly hold more than ten percent of the shares in the company, there is at most one supervisory board member who can be considered to be affiliated with or representing them as stipulated in best practice provision 2.1.8, sections vi. and vii.		Following the three new appointments, the Board consists of four independent Non-Executive Directors, two Non-Executive Directors and one Executive Director.  With regard to principle 2.1.7(iii), two Non-Executive Directors are appointed to the Board pursuant to arrangements between the Company's majority shareholder (which holds more than 10% of the shares of the Company) and certain of its creditors. This arrangement was entered into before the Company listed on the WSE.  The conditions of appointment of the shareholdernominated Non-Executive Directors are set out in a Relationship Agreement between the Company and certain affiliates of the Company's majority shareholder. A summary of the key terms of the Relationship Agreement is available on the Company's website.  Given the nature of the Relationship Agreement, the independence of the supervisory board is not expected to change in the short term.
2.1.8 Independence of supervisory board members	A supervisory board member is not independent if they or their spouse, registered partner or life companion, foster child or relative by blood or marriage up to the second degree:  i. has been an employee or member of the management board of the company (including associated companies as referred to in Section 5:48 of the Financial Supervision Act (Wet op het financieel toezicht/Wft)) in the five years prior to the appointment;	This principle is applied

2.2.2 Appointment and reappointment periods - supervisory board members	A supervisory board member is appointed for a period of four years and may then be reappointed once for another four-year period. The supervisory board member may then subsequently be reappointed again for a period of two years, which appointment may be extended by at most two years. In the event of a reappointment after an eight-year period, reasons should be given in the report of the supervisory board. In any appointment or reappointment, the profile referred to in best practice provision 2.1.1 should be observed.	The principle is not applied	Members of the Board are appointed for a period of three years and may then be reappointed twice for three-year periods. These appointment arrangements are common in the UK, and permitted under the WSE to which the Company is subject to. For these reasons, the status of compliance with 2.2.2 is not expected to change.
2.2.3 Early retirement	A member of the supervisory board or the management board should retire early in the event of inadequate functioning, structural incompatibility of interests, and in other instances in which this is deemed necessary by the supervisory board. In the event of the early retirement of a member of the management board or the supervisory board, the company should issue a press release mentioning the reasons for the departure.	The principle is applied
2.2.4 Succession	The supervisory board should ensure that the company has a sound plan in place for the succession of management board and supervisory board members that is aimed at retaining the balance in the requisite expertise, experience and diversity. Due regard should be given to the profile referred to in best practice provision 2.1.1 in drawing up the plan for supervisory board members. The supervisory board should also draw up a retirement schedule in order to avoid, as much as possible, supervisory board members retiring simultaneously. The retirement	The principle is not applied	All members of the Board, save those mentioned in 2.1.7. above, were appointed during 2021. The term of appointment for the creditor-appointed Non-Executive Directors is determined by the Relationship Agreement, and the independent Non-Executive Directors have been appointed for a term of three years, capable of extension for a further two three-year terms. CHAPTER 4. THE GENERAL MEETING
Principle 4.1 The general meeting	The general meeting should be able to exert such influence on the policies of the management board and the supervisory board of the company that it plays a fully-fledged role in the system of checks and balances in the company. Good corporate governance requires the fully-fledged participation of shareholders in the decision-making in the general meeting.
